Are you presently a Christian? _____

Do you have any objections to saluting the United States Flag, the Christian Flag, or the Bible?

_____

Will you honestly and in good spirit maintain our dress code each day? _____

Will you keep all of the school's rules and respect authority without finding fault? _____

Do you want to attend Daystar Christian Academy? _____

The administration of Daystar Christian Academy strongly opposes swearing, cheating, the use of tobacco, gambling, dancing, drinking alcoholic beverages, the use of indecent language, the misuse of drugs, and listening to or watching those things which are detrimental to spiritual growth (e.g., rock music, pornography, MTV, etc.). Students who attend Daystar Christian Academy are expected to refrain from the above items. Will you honor these guidelines?

If either student or parent comes to the conclusion that these items cannot be honored, a mandatory meeting is to be scheduled prior to the school year.

The administration also believes that our students should maintain Christian standards in courtesy, kindness, morality, honesty, dress, conduct, and other areas of life. Students should act in an orderly and responsible manner.

I agree to abide by the above standards of conduct and other regulations expected of each student enrolled at Daystar Christian Academy and will not give the impression to other students, parents, or faculty, that I am not in harmony with the goals, aims, and standards of Daystar Christian Academy. I understand that students not abiding by the Standard of Conduct may be requested to withdraw whenever the administration determines that it is necessary.
